FEMI OYENIRAN

Representation by Wendy Scozzaro

Femi Oyeniran is an award-winning actor and filmmaker who has starred in hit films including Kidulthood and Anuvahood. His first feature film as a writer, director and co-producer, It's A Lot was released theatrically in 2013.

On completing his law degree at the London School of Economics, Femi decided to focus on acting and filmmaking, which led to him producing a feature length documentary about Fatherhood, which features Trevor McDonald, Tinie Tempah and Spike Lee. In 2015, he partnered with Victor Adebodun to produce the 10x30 minute comedy series VENUS Vs MARS for Sky Living. He also has a producer credit on Sky Atlantic series Tin Star, which stars Timothy Roth.

In 2016, he co-wrote, co-directed and produced THE INTENT, which was released to unprecedented commercial success. It opened to sold-out cinemas and landed at number 3 on the iTunes Movies Chart and is now available on Netflix around the world. The prequel THE INTENT 2 (aka THE COME UP), which was shot in the UK and Jamaica is set for a September 2018 release. He also recently wrote an episode of a Netflix Original series starring Idris Elba called Turn Up Charlie.

In 2015, he was selected as a Ones To Watch by the Edinburgh International TV Festival and a Broadcast Hot Shot by Broadcast Magazine. In November 2016, he also acted as the executive producer on ITV2 mockumentary DROPPERZ.
